ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE FOR THE EXPAT IN ALL OF US
What's happening, and might be happening, in and around Hua Hin

TELL US ABOUT IT!

BECOME THE EYES AND EARS OF AWOL

■ HUA HIN, THAILAND

The ongoing and rapid growth of Hua Hin and its surrounds has forever changed this once quiet village in several ways, many good, but any such expansion also inevitably attracts the bad elements of society. Only this week AWOL has heard (but been unable to confirm information) about an attack by a Thai teenager on a foreign lady in the Samorpong area, and there does appear to be more crimes and incidents involving foreigners as victims, but also sometimes as perpetrators.

However it is very difficult for AWOL to get accurate and corroborated facts on most of these incidents, and this is where we would like to ask you for your help. If you witness, are a victim of, or hear about any incidents, small or large, violent, accidental or otherwise, we would like you to tell us about them. We can't guarantee that it will go into print, but it will give us the chance to investigate further, as well as gain a broader perspective on what is happening here, which can then be passed on to you, our readers. Obviously the more information you can give us, such as full names, dates and times, precise locations and any police involvement (for example) the easier it will be for us to uncover possible stories that should be shared.

In some instances we will not be able, or will be asked not to print a story due to a victim or family's wishes, or a legal issue for example, and we must respect these situations, and if you supplied information to us we would also respect any requests made for anonymity, as we are acutely aware of the dangers that come from being the cause of either loss of face or business. Our aim would always be to try and present a fair and balanced account, and we hope that you can all help us do so. To submit information please email submissions@awolonline.net or call 081 649 8361.

Thank you for reading AWOL.

CAPRICORN DEC 22 - JAN 19

 A hot bowl of soup and a good night's sleep can cure many ills, it's true, but you might want to consider the possibility that you have the world's worst oncologist.

AQUARIUS JAN 20 - FEB 18

 Unfortunately for your dream of having multiple gorgeous sex partners, attitudes toward sex will become much more open-minded just as attitudes toward nutrition and personal hygiene go right down the tubes.

PISCES FEB 19 - MAR 20

 This is a great time for romance in the workplace, if you're the sort of idiot who thinks that's even close to a good idea.

ARIES MAR 21 - APR 20

 The gods do indeed enjoy playing games with our lives—tempting us with power and driving us mad with hubris—but you they just enjoy seeing hit in the balls.

TAURUS APR 21 - MAY 21

 You'll suffer from a continuing inability to enjoy anything but the company of friends and family, the satisfaction of a job well done, and the knowledge that you have lived a life of dignity.

GEMINI MAY 22 - JUNE 21

 You'll finally find a man who loves you for who you are, but unfortunately he's every bit as miserable as you might expect.

CANCER JUN 22 - JUL 22

 If you had just one piece of wisdom to impart to future generations, it would probably be unspeakably filthy.

LEO JUL 23 - AUG 22

 This is a time of great uncertainty for you, but that doesn't mean the odds of drawing to an inside straight will improve at all.

VIRGO AUG 23 - SEP 22

 You're not the kind of person who lets your physical handicaps stop you, but that's because you prey on people with even fewer limbs than yourself, you sick puppy.

LIBRA SEP 23 - OCT 23

 Artistic expression has never been your strength, so it's frankly mystifying when the National Gallery puts your margin doodles on display just to trash them.

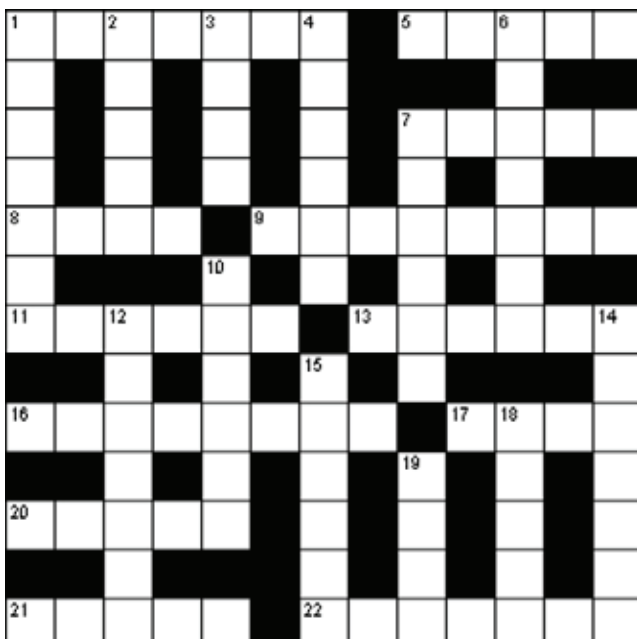

SCORPIO OCT 24 - NOV 21

 Sometimes it's good to just sit back and watch the universe unfolding. But other times, such as next Tuesday, it's good to stop baby carriages from rolling in front of buses.

SAGITTARIUS NOV 22 - DEC 21

 Due to your optimism, your death next week will come as a big surprise; however, due to your devout Christianity, what comes after will be a terrible shock.

■ HONGHU, CHINA Eel removed from man's bladder after entering penis during beauty spa

An erratic eel wriggled its way up a man's penis and into his bladder following an accident during an unorthodox beauty spa in China.

Zhang Nan was bathing with live eels to cleanse his skin when one rogue serpent took a liking to his manhood. The eel treatment in question is a similar concept to the popular London spas that offer fish pedicures.

Thinking that the eels would make him look ten years younger, Nan dived into the water and let them feast upon layers of dead skin.

But after laying in the spa bath, Nan felt a sharp pain and realised a small eel was working its way up his urethra and into his bladder.

'I climbed into the bath and I could feel the eels nibbling my body. But then suddenly I felt a severe pain and realised a small eel had gone into the end of my penis,' the 56-year-old from Honghu, Hubei province said. 'I tried to hold it and take it out, but the eel was too slippery to be held and it disappeared up my penis.'

Rushing himself to hospital, the man underwent a three-hour operation to remove the six-inch eel which was dead by the time doctors found it.

Surgeon Jin Wang said that, because of the eel's slippery nature, it was able to make a smooth entry into the genitals of Nan. 'The diameter of the urethra in a man's penis is just a little narrower, but because eels are quite slippery, its body worked as a lubricant and so it got into the penis smoothly,' he said.

Believe it or not, Nan's case follows a similar incident when a 14-year-old boy in India had to undergo emergency surgery.

In a case study published by urologists Dr G Vezhaventhan and R Jeyaraman, they described how they removed a 2cm-long fish from the boy's bladder.

The teenager said that while holding the fish he had gone to the toilet and, while urinating, the fish had 'slipped from his hand and entered his urethra'. Hmmmm...

■ CORBY, ENGLAND Demolition man Steven Magee breaks record for world's biggest fry-up
Steven Magee has managed to stuff himself with the world's biggest English breakfast, containing a whopping 7,500 calories and weighing an incredible three kilos. Mr Magee, 29, has become the only person in six years able to defeat the humungous fry-up at the Hungry Horse cafe in Corby, Northamptonshire.

At least 60 customers have attempted The Big One, which contains three times the recommended daily number of calories for an average male.

The breakfast includes three sausages, three beef burgers, three fried eggs, three rashers of bacon, three slices of black pudding, three square sausages, three portions of beans and three portions of mushrooms.

It comes alongside three potato waffles, three potato scones, three hash browns, three portions of fried bread, three rounds of bread and butter and three rounds of toast.

The big breakfast takes up the whole 3ft griddle and is given away for free to anyone who can finish it.

FEATURED GAME

SCOTTISH PREMIER

SUNDAY, 18 SEPTEMBER 2011

Rangers v Celtic, 18:30

Hampden Park, Glasgow

The first (of three) scheduled meetings between the 'Old Firm', and as usual the two are locked together at the top of the table; however this match is often as much about the fans, who create a quite incredible atmosphere, not matched by many other derby games anywhere.

This weekend will not see much police leave with not only this game, but on Saturday Millwall v West Ham, and on Sunday Spurs v Liverpool and Manchester United v Chelsea; any of them could have been our featured game, but this game in Scotland trumps them all.

It is likely to be fast and furious as the fans' frenzy affects the players; as with most derby matches the most likely outcome is a draw, but Rangers will have the edge over a Celtic side that has been a little erratic.

HOOKERS, JOCK STRAPS AND WARM BEER

BID TO KEEP RUGBY FANS
IN NEW ZEALAND

■ AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND

THERE have been fresh calls to detain Britain's diehard rugby fans in New Zealand for the rest of their lives.

Campaigners insist the move will free up UK pubs from thick-necked men drinking a pint of somebody else's vomit while the sparsely populated country will give them plenty of room to swing their constantly exposed forearms.

Sportologist Dr Wayne Hayes said: "I once went to New Zealand by accident. They will have millions of pointless acres of grass to charge up and down while sniffing vigorously at each other's scrotums.

"If we act quickly and quarantine the place we can turn it into a knuckle-scraping version of the Jurassic Park island, but instead of velociraptors it'll be slow-witted, ruddy-faced men called 'Ollie'."

The World Cup has lured rugby people from 20 countries across the world with the promise of 14 penalties a minute and the chance to drink warm, flat beer from plastic cups.

Experts estimate it could be the biggest migration of insufferables since the Nazi invasion of Russia.

Left: A warning has been issued to be on the lookout for Ollie, who is rumoured to have stopped in Hua Hin on his way to the Rugby World Cup

Hayes added: "Conservationists have complained that New Zealand's pristine environment will be damaged by such high concentrations of hilarious flatulence, but then again it coped pretty well with five long years of Orlando Bloom's ghastliness."

In the meantime, meteorologists predicted that if the wind is blowing in the right direction, people on the coast of Peru should be able to hear a jaunty song about a woman called 'Vagina'.

The World Cup will continue until 23 October, or until everyone involved has died from an anus-related prank.
