HUA HIN HELPS

CHARITY CONCERT TO HELP LOCAL KAREN VILLAGES

HUA HIN, THAILAND

Next Saturday, 15th October, the Hua Hin Grand Hotel Stadium will host Hua Hin Helps, a charity concert, featuring international and local musicians for a night of eclectic music in support of the local nonprofit organization, Connect3e.

Performances will take place between 8pm and midnight featuring the headline act the Lincoln Davis Trio, local musicians, including the duo, Mr. Pahp and Mr. Doctor, and a southern Thai band, Sabaii Blue, a live dance show, a charity raffle and snacks from local restaurants.

Hua Hin Helps Coordinator Peter Barry said the idea for the event began in collaboration with the musician Lincoln Davis, who is coming to Thailand as part of the group, Sailing Conductors, who are musicians sailing from Sydney, Australia to Berlin, Germany and collaborating with the people they meet to learn and perform traditional music. Barry added that "[Lincoln] wanted to do a concert here, so I said I'll help him do that. We knew about Connect3e, so I thought, let's join these together. The idea just developed from there."

"I hope the event is going to inform people about Connect3e, and the situation with Burma and the Karen, spread awareness, and raise money. It might also pave the way for future events for charity. It may be a beginning of something more long term," Barry said.

All profits from the event will be donated directly to Connect3e, an organization that helps provide support and resources for several Karen villages located in the Pala-U and Ratchaburi areas. Connect3e is entirely dependent on private donations and provides support through a Return Bar is one of only a few bars in Hua Hin that has a full size (9 feet) pool table, as well as a more standard size table for the pool hackers amongst us!

They have a team entered in the Hua Hin Pool Billiards League which plays every Friday (see page 24 for current standings, results and fixtures) and new players are always welcome.

Open every day from late afternoon, Return Bar is a great place to relax away from the hassles of the town centre, and somewhere you will find yourself coming again and again!

philosophy of, "Embrace, educate and empower."

Above: Children helped by Connect3e

Barry said he chose Connect3e for the first Hua Hin Helps concert because it is one of the most active charities in Hua Hin, and it is constantly breaking new ground and helping new villages, which he said is both encouraging and important.

In addition to performing at Hua Hin Helps, the Lincoln Davis Trio (pictured right) plan to visit several Karen hill tribe villages to learn their traditional music and create a fusion record for a documentary about their journey.

Throughout the event, Hua Hin Helps will also provide snacks donated from local restaurants, drinks that can be purchased from the Grand, a display of traditional Karen hill tribe merchandise for sale, and a variety donated raffle packages, including free dinners from local restaurants, rounds of golf, spa packages, etc.

The suggested entry fee is 300 to 600 baht. Guests who pay 600 baht or more will automatically be entered into the charity raffle.

Tickets for the concert are available through the Hua Hin Helps Coordinators; call 084 737 1545 or 082 241 3114. Interested parties can also purchase individual or group tickets at the door on the night of the event.

"I think it's going to be good, a big crowd and people are going to enjoy it a lot," said Barry.

■ Do you wonder why we say certain things, or what they really mean? Each week we will examine a different word or phrase and tell you how it came about.

This week it is.. At one fell swoop
Suddenly; in a single action.
This is one of those phrases that we may have picked up early in our learning of the language and probably worked out its meaning from the context we heard it in, without any clear understanding of what each word meant. Most native English speakers could say what it means but, if we look at it out of context, it doesn't appear to make a great deal of sense. That lack of understanding of the words in the phrase is undoubtedly the reason that this is often misspelled, for example, 'at one fail swoop', or even, with some more justification as it might be thought to relate to birds, 'one fowl swoop'. It isn't difficult to find examples of 'one foul swoop'. 'Stoop' is sometimes substitued for 'swoop' in all of the above variants, again drawing on avian imagery.
So, what's that 'fell'? We use the word in a variety of ways: to chop, as in fell a tree; a moorland or mountain, like those in the northern UK; the past tense of fall, as 'he fell over'. None of those seems to make sense in this phrase and indeed the 'fell' here is none of those. It's an old word, in use by the 13th century, that's now fallen out of use apart from in this phrase and as the common root of the term 'felon'. The Oxford English Dictionary defines fell as meaning 'fierce, savage; cruel, ruthless; dreadful, terrible', which is pretty unambiguous.
Shakespeare either coined the phrase, or gave it circulation, in Macbeth, 1605:
MACDUFF: [on hearing that his family and servants have all been killed]
All my pretty ones?
Did you say all? O hell-kite! All?
What, all my pretty chickens and their dam
At one fell swoop?

The kite referred to is a hunting bird, like the Red Kite, which was common in England in Tudor times and is now making a welcome return after near extinction in the 20th century. The swoop (or stoop as is now said) is the rapid descent made by the bird when capturing prey. Shakespeare used the imagery of a hunting bird's 'fell swoop' to indicate the ruthless and deadly attack by Macbeth's agents.
In the intervening years we have rather lost the original meaning and use it now to convey suddenness rather than savagery.

Shakespeare is one of the great contributors to the English language and here are a couple more that you may not have known about.
A foregone conclusion
A decision made before the evidence for it is known. An inevitable conclusion.
From Shakespeare's Othello, 1604:
OTHELLO: But this denoted a foregone conclusion:
'Tis a shrewd doubt, though it be but a dream.

A sorry sight
A regrettable and unwelcome aspect or feature. Now also used to mean something or someone of untidy appearance.
From Shakespeare's Macbeth, 1605:
MACBETH: Hark! Who lies i' the second chamber?
LADY MACBETH: Donalbain.
MACBETH: This is a sorry sight. [Looking on his hands]
LADY MACBETH: A foolish thought, to say a sorry sight.

GREETING CARDS

Ever wondered what happens when Hallmark writers are having a bad day writing cards.....

My tyre was thumping.
I thought it was flat
When I looked at the wheel...
I noticed your cat.

Sorry!

Heard your wife left you,
How upset you must be.
But don't fret about it...
She moved in with me.

Looking back over the years
That we've been together,
I can't help but wonder...
"What the hell was I thinking?"

Congratulations on your wedding day
Too bad no one likes your husband.

How could two people as beautiful as you
Have such an ugly baby?

I've always wanted to have Someone to hold,
Someone to love.
But after having met you ...
I've changed my mind.

I must admit, you brought Religion into my life.
I never believed in Hell until I met you.

As the days go by, I think of how lucky I am...
That you're not here to ruin it for me.

Congratulations on your promotion.
Before you go...
Would you like to take this knife out of my back?
You'll probably need it again.

Happy Birthday, Uncle Dad!

(Available only in Tennessee , Kentucky, West Virginia, some parts of Norfolk and the Scottish isles)

Happy birthday! You look great for your age.
Almost Lifelike!

When we were together,
You always said you'd die for me.
Now that we've broken up,
I think it's time you kept your promise.

I'm so miserable without you
it's almost like you're here.

Congratulations on your new bundle of joy.
Did you ever find out who the father was?

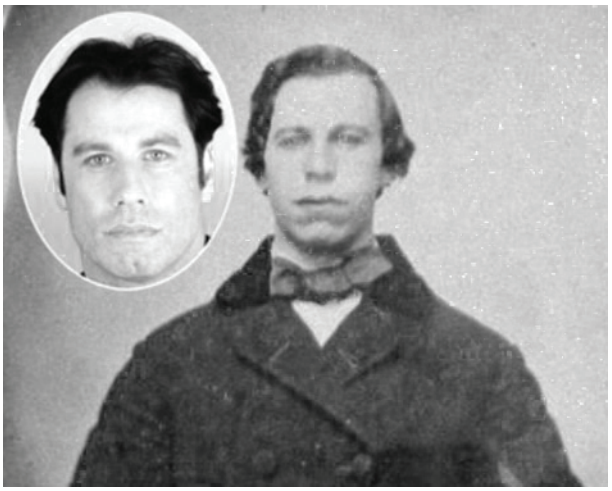
■ ONTARIO, CANADA After Nicolas Cage 'vampire' pic, now pic of 'John Travolta in 1860' appears



Left: Could this really be John Travolta? It certainly brings a whole new meaning to 'Stayin' Alive'!

The Church of Scientology advocates the idea of past lives and, as an avid member, John Travolta may be interested to discover that a man is selling a photo taken in 1860 which he claims is of the Hollywood actor.

The seller is asking for $50,000 for the ruby glass ambrotype photograph, which he says could be proof that John Travolta has been 'reincarnated' (not into a new being but an identical body, presumably).

'I believe this is the photograph of a very young John Travolta taken around 1860,' said the eBay seller.

'Of course, time travel can't be ruled out as well.'

The seller, from Ontario, Canada, claims the man in his picture has 'identical' eyes and hairline to Travolta, as well as his 'very unique trademark chin'.

'It hasn't been changed, tampered with or altered in anyway. It is clear and is as nice as the day it was taken roughly 151 years ago,' he said in the description listed on the auction site.

Keen to prove he is not selling the dubious photo purely for financial gain, the seller is generously offering free shipping and gift wrapping to anyone who is willing to stump of tens of thousands of dollars.

■ SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA Fastest motor sofa in the world reaches speeds of 101mph

The humble sofa has come a long way - and the fastest motor couch in the worldcan do 101mph.

Its driver, Glenn Suter, smashed the previous 92mph record in his unusual vehicle, powered by a 1,400cc Suzuki superbike engine.

A coffee table and fruit bowl were included by the Australian designers, whose previous speedy masterpieces have included a motorised toilet.

'I'm absolutely stoked to have been able to hit world record speeds with our couch,' Mr Suter said. 'I could feel the sheer power of the motor under the lounge as I was driving it down the runway. And it's a pretty great feeling.'

Mr Suter set his record at Camden airport near Sydney. He snatched the record previously held by Englishman Marek Turowski in 2007.

Paul McKinnon, who built the machine for Australian drinks maker Ice Break, added: 'It's the oddest vehicle we've ever built.

'With race cars, you can use the aerodynamic body kit but with the couch it was a matter of just doing what we could. We tried to break the airflow with the coffee table.'

■ QINGDAO, CHINA Birthday girl accidentally swallows surprise necklace hidden in her cake

An unsuspecting birthday girl accidentally swallowed the £500 gold necklace her boyfriend had hid in her cake as a surprise, before having it surgically removed.

Romantic Xiao Li, 22, helplessly looked on as Wang Xue gulped down the expensive necklace planted inside a muffin he'd baked especially for his girlfriend's birthday party in Qingdao, eastern China.

'I thought it would show how much I love her and it would be a good joke too. But before I could say anything she'd swallowed it in one bite and I had to tell her the truth on the way to hospital,' he said.

After taking an X-ray doctors decided they would need to perform endoscopic surgery to remove the necklace from the 22-year-old's stomach. A probe was put down her throat and her birthday pressie was fished out as good as new.

'She got her necklace back eventually, but I'm not sure she will ever feel very comfortable wearing it even though I spent hours cleaning it for her,' Xiao added.

Sunday, 9th October 2011, till Thursday, 3rd November 2011, daily from 9 am till 6 pm
This show is a black and white photography exhibition in the various styles of a Thai graphic designer who relocated to the US years ago. Miranti Borvornsin's "East meets West" perspective has been enjoyed by Americans in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago and New York over the years.
All pictures are limited edition prints and almost all of them are for sale. Half of the profits will be donated to the Dhamma Foundation, the other half to World Vision.

UPCOMING

Fringe Festival – Three Sisters at the Vic Hua Hin. Saturday, 12th November 2011, 7.30 pm
The Japanese contemporary dance-theatre company, Pappa Tarahumara, re-interprets Antoon Chekov's literary classic set in the rural Japan during the 1960s. It's seemingly sweet portrayal of three bored sisters grappling with womanhood spirals in to a sensual and charged meditation on female identity, coming-of-age and the Japanese obsession with youth culture. This eccentric comic tragedy, narrated through dynamic choreography, is a powerfully condensed alternative to the company's larger scale multi-disciplinary works.
Tickets for 900, 700 and 500 Baht (students 50 % discount) available at Vic Hua Hin: 032-827-814 to 815.

AMT works under the direct supervision of a fully qualified, American Doctor (MD), who is available for a free and full consultation prior to any procedure. We understand that every patient is different and this ensures that every treatment proposed is the correct one for each individual. Using ground breaking technology we harvest stem cells from your own body fat, thus eliminating the risk of rejection and overcoming any moral or ethical concerns.
During the harvesting procedure (mini-liposuction) the only drug used is a local anaesthetic which minimises any possibility of side-effects. Once harvested, the stem cells are separated from your own body fat, isolated, activated and then infused as required. We guarantee that no embryo or bone marrow stem cells are used in any AMT procedures.

"You have earned it, now enjoy life..."

How do stem cells work? They are the bodies building blocks which rebuild damaged tissue, blood vessels etc, by being attracted to inflammation and allowing your body to regenerate naturally.

Wellington Regional Stadium
Probably the pick of the quarter finals with two teams who will always raise their games for the big occasion. Australia, twice winners of the trophy, will be hoping to follow up their Tri-Nations win, and they beat the same opponents on the way. However South Africa, also two times winners, will be itching for revenge, and their experienced (some might say aging) team will use all their nous in what should be an absorbing contest.
We suspect that the Wallabies will have too much pace and energy for the Springboks ultimately, as well as the incentive of a probable clash with the All Blacks in the semis, and this should be a cracking game.

CARLOS TEVEZ BLAMES CORONATION STREET FOR EVERYTHING

■ MANCHESTER, ENGLAND

Carlos Tevez has blamed Coronation Street for his refusal to get off the bench against Bayern Munich.

The Argentinian has told Roberto Mancini that he feels "bored and depressed" and has complained that his bum looks big.

"I have turned into a whining fat git, like all Manchester people" ranted Tevez.

The footballer admitted he had become unfit after spending years sitting on his arse watching Kevin and Tyrone supping pints in The Rover's Return.

The Manchester City striker also told Mancini that Ken Barlow is "a stupid twat" and Norris "an old nonce". Tevez then went on to tell reporters that he wouldn't feed the bacon sarnies in Roy's Rolls to his dogs and slagged off the women in Coronation Street. "Rosie Webster is decent but the machinists in Underworld are all minging slappers " said an angry Tevez.

Above: London Zoo loan move for Tevez?

The Argie's latest statement that "Hayley Cropper is even uglier than Gary Neville" is further evidence that the deluded footballer has completely lost touch with reality.

Meanwhile it has emerged that London Zoo has offered Tevez an unexpected route out of his Manchester hell, by making an audacious loan move for the suspended striker.

A London Zoo spokesperson told us, "What better way to think about your future than by enjoying a full-board carefree existence, all in return for the entertainment of a few school children. He can sit on as many benches as he likes here at the Zoo. As long as he doesn't throw faeces at the wall of his cage, we're happy. Man City will need to continue paying his wages, obviously, but we'll provide him with as many live animals as he can eat – but not the endangered ones."

"This is not a publicity stunt, we believe an exhibit like Tevez – which we're thinking of calling 'The Petulant Ogre' – would do wonders for our global reputation."
