GLITZ AND GLAMOUR

INTERNATIONAL FILM FEST COMING TO TOWN

■ HUA HIN, THAILAND

Hua Hin has had it's brushes with the movie world in the past but has never been renowned as a film lover's paradise - only a few short years ago there wasn't even a cinema, until Market Village opened with the Major Cineplex in 2006. That may all be set to change though as the town welcomes the inaugural Hua Hin International Film Festival, which will take place between 26th and 29th January at four main venues - the InterContinental Hua Hin Resort which is the official Festival venue, Centennial Park, the Vic Hua Hin and the Major Cineplex at Market Village.

Details of the films to be screened will be announced shortly, and AWOL will bring news and information on this as soon as it is available, but what has already been announced and rumoured certainly sounds like an event not to be missed for lovers of the silver screen.

The Opening Ceremony will take place on Friday 27th January at the InterContinental, and while this will be invited guests only there will be a chance to see some of the stars attending in a Red Carpet parade on the beach by the resort in the evening. The glamour, excitement and a glimpse of the stars will also be possible at Centennial Park, where the event will be shown on a large screen. Centennial Park will be open from the 26th to 29th January from 5 - 11pm, and there will be live music, shows, movie-related displays, a large screen showing festival highlights, and lots to eat and drink. The proceeds from ticket sales and from Centennial Park activities will be donated to the Flood Victim Relief Fund.

The Vic Hua Hin theatre, the dream project of 'Kru Lek' Patravadi, will be the venue for Seminar events, and will hold special family events in honour of Khun Patravadi's long and esteemed contribution to the arts. There will also be a retrospective of all movies starring 'Kru Lek'.

The Major Cineplex is where the festival screenings will take place. With the sole exceptions of the opening and closing films, tickets for all screenings can be booked via the box office at Market Village. Some films are likely to be very popular and tickets will sell out early, so it is a good idea to book in advance.

There will be an information desk at the cinema during the festival, where you will be able to get more information on the different screenings and events. As a member of the audience, you can also help choose the films that will win festival awards, with voting forms available at Major Cineplex which will determine the Audience Awards.

The Closing Ceremony will be at the InterContinental on 29th January, and will feature The Hua Hin International Film Festival Awards Ceremony. Over 40 films will have been screened over the four days, and over one hundred stars and directors will have been present, and there have already been rumours about Hollywood stars who might be attending.

The event is organised by The National Federation of Thai Film Associations with the Hua Hin Municipality and The Tourism Authority of Thailand. More information can be found at the website huahinfilmfest.com or their Twitter page, Hua Hin Filmfest.

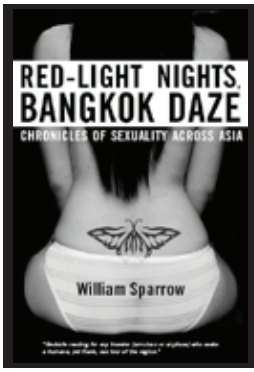
Return Bar is one of only a few bars in Hua Hin that has a full size (9 feet) pool table, as well as a more standard size table for the pool hackers amongst us!

They have a team entered in the Hua Hin Pool Billiards League which plays every Friday (see p 28 for current standings, results and fixtures) and new players are always welcome.

Open every day from late afternoon, Return Bar is a great place to relax away from the hassles of the town centre, and somewhere you will find yourself coming again and again!



Sometimes contradictory, bewildering, revolutionary and hypocritical, Red-Light Nights, Bangkok Daze is a collection of articles on the complex and fascinating world of sex in Asia.

■ Do you wonder why we say certain things, or what they really mean? Each week we will examine a different word or phrase and tell you how it came about.

This week it is.. Shakespeare Part Two
Here's some more of the well-known quotations that were either Shakespeare's own work, or were 'popularised by' rather than 'coined by' the Bard.

I bear a charmed life
I have not slept one wink
I will wear my heart upon my sleeve
If music be the food of love, play on
In a pickle
In my mind's eye, Horatio
In stitches
In the twinkling of an eye
Is this a dagger which I see before me?
It beggar'd all description
It is meat and drink to me
Lay it on with a trowel
Lie low
Like the Dickens
Love is blind
Make your hair stand on end
Milk of human kindness
More fool you
Much Ado about Nothing
Neither a borrower nor a lender be
Night owl
Now is the winter of our discontent
Off with his head
Oh, that way madness lies
Out of the jaws of death
Pound of flesh
Rhyme nor reason
Salad days
Send him packing
Set your teeth on edge
Short shrift
Shuffle off this mortal coil
Smooth runs the water where the brook is deep
Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon 'em
Star crossed lovers
Stony hearted
Such stuff as dreams are made on
The course of true love never did run smooth
The Devil incarnate
The game is afoot
The game is up
The quality of mercy is not strained
The Queen's English
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune
The smallest worm will turn, being trodden on
There's method in my madness
Thereby hangs a tale
This is the short and the long of it
To be or not to be, that is the question
To gild refined gold, to paint the lily
Too much of a good thing
Truth will out
Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown
Up in arms
Vanish into thin air
We few, we happy few, we band of brothers
Wear your heart on your sleeve
What a piece of work is man
What's in a name? That which we call a rose by any other name would smell as sweet
While you live, tell truth and shame the Devil!
Who wooed in haste, and means to wed at leisure
Wild goose chase
Woe is me

CAPRICORN DEC 22 - JAN 19

One of the most magical sounds in the world is the laughter of children on Christmas morning, but it's kind of jarring when directed at you as the flames consume your body.

AQUARIUS JAN 20 – FEB 18

The stars would love to tell you what's ahead for you, but they've decided they'd rather wait and see the look on your face when it all happens.

PISCES FEB 19 – MAR 20

Nothing will be able to prepare you for the sense of dread and fear you'll experience when you suddenly realize your life has meaning and purpose again.

ARIES MAR 21 – APR 20

To improve your spiritual health, avoid the myriad temptations of the flesh. This is most easily accomplished by repeating the word "flesh" over and over until it creeps you out.

TAURUS APR 21 – MAY 21

Most accidents occur at home, so stay safe this week by living on the streets of a distant city.

GEMINI MAY 22 – JUNE 21

You've always been afraid no one will notice when you die, but take comfort: The swarm of killer bees will be very much aware of what's happening.

CANCER JUN 22 – JUL 22

There is little that can truly mend a broken heart besides time. Sadly, you only have about three weeks to learn to love and be loved again.

LEO JUL 23 – AUG 22

You'll learn a lot about yourself this week, but despite that, you'll still struggle to figure out exactly what you're supposed to eat.

VIRGO AUG 23 – SEP 22

The stars see many things ahead for you, which is exactly the kind of vague and value-neutral statement they've spent eons perfecting.

LIBRA SEP 23 – OCT 23

Saturn and Mars rising in your sign foretell a deadly combination of conflict and the search for knowledge. To avoid sudden murder, don't read any predictions about your future this week.

SCORPIO OCT 24 – NOV 21

The circumstances of your life will combine in such a way as to grant you possession of a great many lemons. However, all the advice you get regarding their purpose will be useless and trite.

SAGITTARIUS NOV 22 – DEC 21

The vast resources and knowledge of human civilization will once again be marshaled and brought to bear for the purpose of telling you what everyone's cat is doing.

■ LITTLE PRICK

Dave was staring sadly into his pint and sighed heavily.
"What's up Dave?" asked the publican. "It's not like you to be so down in the mouth."
"It's my four-year-old son…" Dave replied.
"Don't tell me, he's in trouble for fighting in school? My lad's just the same – forget about it, it happens to boys that age," said the publican, sympathetically.
"I only wish it was that," continued the customer, "but, it's far worse than that. The little bastard has got our gorgeous 18 year old next door neighbour pregnant!"
"Get away, that's impossible!" gasped the publican.
"It's not," said Dave. "The little prick stuck a pin in all my condoms."

■ THE FARM BOY

An old farmer drove to a neighbour's house and knocked at the door. A boy, about 9, opened the door.
"Is your Dad home?"
"No sir, he isn't; he went to town."
"Well, is your Mother here?"
"No sir, she went to town with Dad."
"How about your brother, Howard? Is he here?"
"No sir, He went with Mum and Dad."
The rancher stood there for a few minutes, shifting from one foot to the other, and mumbling to himself.
"Is there anything I can do for you? I know where all the tools are, if you want to borrow one, or I can give Dad a message."
"Well," said the rancher uncomfortably, "I really wanted to talk to your Dad. It's about your brother Howard getting my daughter, Suzie, pregnant."
The boy thought for a moment. "You would have to talk to Dad about that. I know he charges $500 for the bull and $50 for the hog, but I don't know how much he charges for Howard."

■ ADRIFT

Two Aussies are adrift in a lifeboat. While rummaging through the boat's provisions one of them finds an old lamp.
He rubs the lamp and a genie suddenly appears. This genie tells them that he only grants one wish.
Without giving much thought to the matter, the lamp finder blurts out, "Turn the entire ocean into VB!"
The genie claps his hands with a deafening crash, and immediately the entire sea turns into beer.
The genie disappears and only the gentle lapping of beer on the hull breaks the stillness as the two men considered their circumstances.
The second Aussie turns to the first and says, "Nice going mate! Now we're going to have to pee in the boat."

■ ROME, ITALY Italian man to divorce wife of 77 years over 1940s affair

A 99-year-old Italian man and his wife of 77 years are to become the world's oldest couple to divorce after his 96-year-old wife had an affair 70 years ago.

The husband, identified by lawyers in the case as Antonio C, found out about the adultery when he was looking through an old chest just before Christmas. He immediately asked his wife, who is identified as Rosa C, for a divorce as he was so upset over the betrayal. Court papers released in Rome this week revealed that she sent letters to her lover during a secret affair in the 1940s.

The couple have five children, a dozen grandchildren and one great-grand child, but the discovery proved to be the last straw for the marriage, which reportedly ran into trouble ten years ago.

Lawyer Anna Orecchioni said: 'The husband decided to file for divorce after finding the love letters. He felt betrayed and unable to carry on with the marriage which has lasted 77 years.' The pair met in the 1930s when Antonio was posted in Naples as a Carabinieri officer.

■ RUSSIA Man lives with bullet lodged in head for 82 years, has no ill effects

The Russian was shot by his brother when he was three, the bullet coming to rest in an opening at the base of the skull where the spinal cord passes. Doctors opted against operating at the time because they believed the risk of severe nerve damage was too high and, against the odds, he made a full recovery.

When the 85-year-old recently went for a cat scan following a heart problem doctors noticed the bullet but, to their astonishment, they could not find any evidence of neural damage.

Dr. David Ross, a physician at Penrose Hospital in Colorado Springs said: 'High-speed missiles, like a bullet, can cause great damage and usually do. However they generate a lot of heat which usually means the missile is sterile and is unlikely to serve as a basis for infection if it stays in one place for many years. So if it did not cause much damage, which it apparently didn't, it was unlikely to cause him ongoing troubles.'

FEATURED GAME

TUESDAY, 10 JANUARY 2012
FA CUP 3RD ROUND
Arsenal v Leeds, 02:45
Emirates Stadium, London, England
While the media's gaze will fall on the Manchester derby, this game is evocative of days gone by and also encapsulates the magic of the FA Cup. Former league champions and a dominant force in the '60's and '70's, Leeds are now still recovering from the financial insanity that saw them tumble down the leagues, although there is a very real prospect of them returning to the Premier League next season. Arsenal, meanwhile, have also suffered somewhat in terms of lack of trophies, and it is possible that this year Wenger will take the FA Cup seriously. This should be a home win but Leeds will battle hard and make it tough for the Gunners, and if the Arsenal manager decides to rest players they could come unstuck. Again.

MANCHESTER MISERY

AS UNITED SUFFER HOME DEFEAT BY BLACKBURN, AUTHORITIES PROMISE ACTION

■ MANCHESTER, ENGLAND

Football authorities in England are promising to take decisive action to prevent further incidents like Manchester United's home defeat by Blackburn Rovers last weekend.

The move follows public reaction to the match on United manager Sir Alex Ferguson's 70th birthday.

United only needed to avoid defeat by the Premier League's troubled basement club to grab top spot over local rivals, City. But it all went wrong as they went down to an unlikely 3-2 defeat.

"We received loads of complaints after the BBC showed the game on Match of the Day twice - on Saturday night and again on Sunday morning," said a spokesman for football.

"And I have to say, you can understand it. Did you see the looks on the faces of some of those people at Old Trafford - except the Blackburn Rovers fans, of course? It was heartbreaking!

"No. We have to do something about that. Teams can't be allowed to go to Old Trafford and beat the media's favourite club."

Authorities are considering new laws such as giving United a two goal start or automatically ruling an opposition player offside should he have the temerity to score. They are also planning to reinstate Howard Webb as the default referee for all United games, to ensure opposition team's penalty appeals are denied, and all decisions favour United.

"We have seen the corrosion of too many standards in this country," the spokesman added. "No-one respects policemen any more, the royal family are a fair target in the press - and now an away team wins at Old Trafford. No... we are drawing a line in the sand."
