THE CAR'S THE STAR

TWO SHOWS FOR MOTORHEADS WITHIN A WEEK

■ HUA HIN, THAILAND

The annual Hua Hin vintage car show, this year called the 'Hua Hin Automobile Concours 2012', takes place from next Friday 14th December through to Sunday 16th December, but is preceded by an event that started yesterday (Thursday 6th December) the 2012 Hua Hin Motor Show, in what is a week to savour for motoring enthusiasts.

The Motor Show is taking place at Centennial Park, which is just after the flyover south of the town near Soi 112; it runs until Monday 10th December and includes a number of special events (most notably what seems like a staple of all Thai car shows, the 'Sexy Car Wash'!) as well as new model cars on display.

The vintage car parade is a well established event and this year marks a decade of proud owners showing off their prized automobiles. It is being organised by Centara Grand Beach Resort & Villas Hua Hin (better known locally as the Sofitel) in cooperation with Hua Hin Municipality and with the support of the Tourism Authority of Thailand, Prachuap Khiri Khan Province, and other five-star hotels in Hua Hin. Some of the proceeds generated from the event will be donated to the Chaipattana Foundation.

Among the many vintage cars that will take part will be Police General Niyom Karnjanawat's Hub Mobile 1914, the only one in Asia. Sawad Hohrungrueng will present his Mercedes Benz 300 SL Roadster 1955, Pot Vijittanont his Mercedes Benz 300 SL Gull-wing 1955, Witthawat Sawad-Chutoh his Ferrari Dino 246 GTS 1974. Fifty classic and vintage cars valued at around 300 million baht will take part in the parade which will also feature period costumes and a car contest. There will also be a jazz concert on the beach on Saturday, 15 December, and a fun-filled programme of music and dining, taking place at the Centara Grand Beach Resort.

■ USA Bacon flavoured shaving cream goes on sale

Men could soon wake up to the smell of bacon from their bathroom after an American company released a crackling flavoured shaving cream.

The new product is described as 'high end, luxurious bacon-scented shaving cream' and the US business adds you should use it after a hot wash or prior to a date with your potential soul mate.

Justin Esch, the 'inventor' of the strange shaving product, said the smell of bacon was the most powerful. He said: 'There is nothing more powerful than the smell of bacon, nothing. Bacon is the smell of champions. Breakfast is the most important meal of the day and bacon is the best part of breakfast. Why not smell like it and be the best?'

The self-titled bacontrepreneur has also come up with other pork inspired products such as bacon salt. He added: 'Bacon is delicious, people get excited when they smell it. When you walk into a room don't you want people to be excited to see you?'

Bacon flavoured shaving cream is available for around $14.99 (450 baht).

■ WILTSHIRE, ENGLAND The Bill send in quack squad to hunt duck thief

An unusual theft has certainly ruffled a few feathers, as in one of the most bizarre crimes police have ever dealt with, a duck called Daisy has had her plumage pinched. But what's even more quackers is the duck's pal, Jemima, was left untouched by the feather thief.

Police were called when owner Sarah Haslam went to her allotment to feed her ducks and saw that 15-month-old Daisy had been completely plucked. The mother-of-five said: 'Somebody must have clipped off all her feathers – it is a crime. My son, William, was hysterical when he found her and I rang the police. But Daisy was not hurt and nothing happened to Jemima, my other duck, who is always by her side.'

Police think Daisy's feathers were deliberately cut off by a thief. The theft was discovered in the town of Ludgershall, in Wiltshire, yesterday. Baffled by the crime, Wiltshire police has promised anonymity to witnesses who come forward with information about Daisy's dilemma. A police spokesman said: 'This is animal cruelty and criminal damage.'

■ A section for all you budding etymologists where each week the origin of a word or phrase is investigated.

This week it is.... A legend in one's own lifetime

Literal meaning, i.e. a living person of considerable fame.

The original use of this phrase was 'a legend in her lifetime', written of Florence Nightingale by Giles Lytton Strachey, in his well-known book Eminent Victorians, 1918:

The name of Florence Nightingale lives in the memory of the world by virtue of the lurid and heroic adventure of the Crimea. Had she died--as she nearly did--upon her return to England, her reputation would hardly have been different; her legend would have come down to us almost as we know it today--that gentle vision of female virtue which first took shape before the adoring eyes of the sick soldiers at Scutari.

She was a legend in her lifetime, and she knew it.

The 'own' is now almost always added to make 'a legend in his/her own lifetime', although most lexicographers think that Strachey's version was better.

The associated term 'living legend' derives of course from 'a legend in one's own lifetime'. This term sprang up in the USA in 1939 and immediately grabbed the imagination of writers there. In that year alone all of these people were described in print as living legends:

Jack Dempsey (boxer)

Cordell Hull (U.S. senator and Nobel Peace Prize Laureate (1945))

Diego Rivera (artist)

Fielding H. Yost (football coach)

The 'lost' Apaches of northern Mexico.

D. B. MacRae (journalist)

Strachey's phrase has spawned imitations. 'A legend in his own lunchtime' is often used humorously about chefs or notorious drinkers ("Lunchtime O'Booze" was used by Private Eye magazine as a generic term for a habitually drunken journalist). Less affectionately, there's also 'a legend in his own imagination', referring to those whose good opinions of themselves aren't shared by others.

Is there an English phrase or saying that you would like to know more about?

■ SIMPLE HOME REMEDIES

These really work!!

1. Avoid cutting yourself when slicing vegetables by getting someone else to hold the vegetables while you chop.
2. Avoid arguments with the females about lifting the toilet seat by using the sink.
3. For high blood pressure sufferers - simply cut yourself and bleed for a few minutes, thus reducing the pressure on your veins; remember to use a timer.
4. A mouse trap placed on top of your alarm clock will prevent you from rolling over and going back to sleep aftre you hit the snooze button.
5. If you have a bad cough, take a large dose of laxatives. Then you'll be afraid to cough.
6. You only need three tools in life - WD-40, duct tape and a hammer. If it doesn't move and should, use the WD-40. If it shouldn't move and does, use the duct tape. In all other cases use the hammer.
7. If you can't fix it with a hammer, you've got an electrical problem.

■ THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Some people are like Slinkies - not really good fpr anything but they bring a smile to your face when they're pushed down the stairs.

■ SOME ADDITIONAL ADVICE:

Never, under any circumstances, take a laxative and sleeping pills on the same night.

Thank you to Tony for this week's jokes!

Soi 94 S & S
INDIAN RESTAURANT
Curries from only 75 baht
Eat in or Takeaway 081 455 5298

CAPRICORN DEC 22 - JAN 19

A thousand monkeys at a thousand typewriters for a thousand years may not be able to produce Shakespeare's works, but they can probably come up with a better hyperbole in half that time.

AQUARIUS JAN 20 – FEB 18

Your disdain for authority will be on full display this week when you pick a fight with a handsome set of leather-bound encyclopedias.

PISCES FEB 19 – MAR 20

Your fledgling psychiatry career will end abruptly as police raid your 'office' to free the 'delusional sex slaves'.

ARIES MAR 21 – APR 20

You'll awake this week to find a complete stranger in your room, along with her husband, their two daughters, and all of their belongings, furniture and clothes.

TAURUS APR 21 – MAY 21

The stars indicate the start of an exciting new career in the coming days. Though it's really those asteroids you should be paying closer attention to.

GEMINI MAY 22 – JUNE 21

You've always been handy with a bow saw, which is good news, as you've never been handy with a bear trap.

CANCER JUN 22 – JUL 22

The debate over capital punishment rages on this week when hundreds of citizens argue over who gets to strap you in.

LEO JUL 23 – AUG 22

Remember: Nobody likes to be called a "cold fish" in bed, but taking your bar's love tester home isn't going to prove anything.

VIRGO AUG 23 – SEP 22

Inspiration will hit you when you least expect it this week, knocking you completely unconscious while your back is turned.

LIBRA SEP 23 – OCT 23

Get ready to kiss your niece, your nephew, and all of your godchildren goodbye. Though, this time, try not to use your tongue while you do it.

SCORPIO OCT 24 – NOV 21

You've never been the type of person who runs away at the first sign of trouble. But that's because you're long gone by the time it arrives.

SAGITTARIUS NOV 22 – DEC 21

Your exaggerated sense of self-worth takes a steep drop this week when the pyramid of milk bottles refuses to fall.

ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE IN CHA AM
FOR THE EXPAT IN ALL OF US

CHA AM, THAILAND

Welcome to this mini- AWOL devoted to near neighbours Cha Am. The intention of this section is to bring news, information, details of events and anything else Cha Am related to our readers.
If you have information or an event in Cha Am, or have a business in Cha Am and are interested in advertising in this section we have made an arrangement with Darren at the Cha Am Pub (see ad below) to be our local point of contact, or you can of course also contact AWOL direct by email on info@awolonline.net or any of our other contact methods shown on page 30.

CHAAM GOSSIP

It always pays to check that the correct light switch is being used BEFORE the calling in of an electrician when your lights are seemingly not working. This lesson was recently and embarrassingly realized after a local Bar owner availed the services of an electrician who embarked on a Rewiring and fault finding job to fix the problem. As the electrician stood scratching his head at the switch as to why the lights weren't still working it became apparent that he was operating the wrong switch. 600 baht later and the right light switch was found and amazingly the lights worked.
We wonder whether Cha Cha Bar may start a "Light Beers Happy Hour" soon to celebrate.

BALLOON CHASERS - TELL US!

This week we hoped to feature some of the Christmas deals that are being offered in the ChaAm Area, but due to a poor response we are postponing this. If you have a special offer or Christmas meal coming up, let us know by contacting Darren on 0822 510 871.
AWOL Cha Am aims to have a regular Balloon Chasers section of it's very own once we have gathered enough information from the local businesses, so please tell us if you have any sort of party, celebration, special offer, regular offer, event or any other diary date that you want to tell everyone about. This is a FREE service - all you have to do is tell us about it. Our first one is on 21st December - "End Of The World Rock & Roll Dance Party" at The "ChaAm Pub & Restaurant". Please note that you don't have to advertise in AWOL to make use of Balloon Chasers!

WHAT IS A BROTHER IN THE MC WORLD?

The word "Brother" has become very abused in the motorcycle world these days. Seems like if you buy a bike and a new set of leathers, everyone else that rides has now become your brother. Some call it Brotherhood when sharing the wind on two wheels. Some call it brotherhood when you ride a few roads together. Just what truly is brotherhood?

Narathip Road, Cha Am

They become brothers, totally committed to one another up to and including giving their lives for one another if necessary. Men that have shared combat together have formed such close relationships as to call each other brother. While these are no less committed than any other Brotherhoods, when it comes to the motorcycle world, there is also a very strong bond among those that call themselves Brothers.

Once you've gone through the hangaround period, the members of the Club have viewed your behavior, your attitude, your dedication, trust and loyalty, to be there. If you've actually completed this period, then you may be asked to become a prospect. During this time you are put under a much more intense review. You and the other members of the club find out if you are suited to be a part of the club and if you can accept the other members as Brothers just as much as if they can accept you and call you Brother. Can you dedicate yourself to the others as close as you would your own flesh and blood? Many times it is an even closer commitment than family. The person that you call Brother becomes family as a part of his as well as you being a part of theirs. A common phrase used in MC circles is "I am my Brother's keeper". This means you will support him and help him any way you can, sometimes to the point of selling your bike to help him, quitting your job to go help him and, in some cases, Brothers have even done things that they already know could get them put in jail because they were willing to take that step to help a Brother out.

With all that commitment, it's also that you would not ask a Brother to do something drastic without very good cause. Brothers may disagree, but they will always respect one another and treat each other with respect.

Please take note that if you haven't had any experience being around some of the more serious MC's (1%, support clubs, etc.), they take the word "Brother, or Bro" very serious, and they'll only use the word as a show of respect towards their own club, their members, and any club who they've also bestowed that word upon.

And if a club overhears someone throwing around the word lightly within their midst, it could cause them to aggressively educate those whom they felt disrespected them by abusing the word.

Next time you feel the need to call someone Brother or Bro, just what is behind it? Commitment or just trying to sound cool?

OH, MAMMY!

BENITEZ TO BLACK UP TO ESCAPE ABUSE

LONDON, ENGLAND

RAFAEL Benitez will don blackface during his time at Chelsea in a bid to reduce abuse from fans and players.

Benitez believes that becoming the league's first minstrel-manager will be so confusing to everyone that they will be too scared to criticise him in case that makes them racist or black, or a black racist.

Benitez said: "I'm hoping to baffle the fans into stopping their booing by slapping on boot polish and answering all future questions in a thick Jamaican accent.

"At the very least it'll make them think I'm not the guy who hated their guts whilst at Liverpool as they're an easily-confused bunch.

"I also expect the players will start telling reporters that some of their best friends are me, so that will help training sessions go a bit more smoothly."

Left: Roman Abramovitch enjoys Rafa's version of the Al Jolson classic 'Mammy' which Benitez plans to sing to the crowd before the next Chelsea home game

He will further wrongfoot the team by playing only reggae played by white performers such as UB40 on the team bus and travelling with his father, who has been dressed up as a Sikh.

Benitez added: "If this fails I can always go back to the old schtick of pretending to be a paranoid lunatic with delusions of grandeur that kept Liverpool fans entranced for nearly six years."

The Spanish beard model has been criticised by supporters for his incendiary comments about how he believed they could win the Champion's League.

Many Chelsea fans protested against Benitez's appointment by buying an expensive ticket for his first few games so that they could wave misspelt handwritten signs that may or may not make him resign.
